

Service Learning

Service Learning Reflection Worksheet

Service Project Description:

Participating in service learning projects not only allows us to help others, but it also allows us to develop our leadership skills and to learn about ourselves as well. For each question/statement below, please note your thoughts and feelings.

What I learned about some of the needs in our community from this project:

How participating in this project made me feel:

What I learned about myself from participating in this project:

What I learned about my brothers and other project participants:

How our chapter could better service others:

How I could better serve others:

What service I want to commit to doing as a result of this project: