

10 Ways To Wreck Your Chapter

1. Don't go to meetings.
2. If you go, be sure and go late.
3. If the weather is bad, then don't even think about going.
4. When you go to the meeting, be sure and try to find fault with the president and each of the officers.
5. Never accept an office that way you can be sure to be able to criticize those who hold office.
6. When you are appointed to a committee, do not go to the meetings.
7. When asked what your opinion is, reply that you have nothing to say, and then complain later.
8. Do nothing more than absolutely necessary, but when someone else comments about the lion's share that some have done tell everyone that the organization is run by a clique.
9. Don't worry about paying dues, just wait until you have received two or three late notices
10. Don't bother getting any new members let the other members worry about those problems.